'78 Vallis "Memories"

Dedicated To Mrs. Mary Conrad

Her birth date is October 1. She attended Wampum, Pennsylvania Elementary and High School. She went on to Indiana University and acquired her Bachelors Degree in education. Once her teaching credentials were established she went on to teach at North Irwin High School and coached Girls' Basketball there.

Prior to her marriage, this woman worked at various "typical" female jobs. She was a meatcutter, worked in a junkyard and in a building supply company.

Her hobbies include tennis and reading. She is known for her "universal taste when it comes to food" and proclaims steak as the best. She is an active member in the Business and Professional Women's Club and also in the choir of the First Methodist Church in New Bethlehem.

Her maiden name was Mary Louise Mielke. She married Robert Conrad and has two daughters, Susan and Christine.

The 1978 Vallis "Memories" is dedicated, with much love and respect, to Mrs. Mary L. Conrad. She is a Senior High English teacher with vitality and never-ending energy to give to the senior class. She co-directed the Senior Play, worked with Seniors on the Senior Prom, Senior Trip, Civil Service testing and Senior Banquets. She was responsible for getting in contact with the proper authority and arranging a "splash party" for the seniors. Thank you, Mrs. Conrad.

“ . . . We Lost Some Friends, But Kept The Memories.”

Kathy Anne Burdett
“L. Bird”
June 3, 1960-July 11, 1975

“Normal days, let me be aware of the treasure you are. Let me learn from you, love you, savor you, bless you — before you depart. Let me not pass you by in quest of some rare and perfect tomorrow. Let me hold you while I may for it will not always be so. One day I will dig my fingers into the earth or bury my face in the pillow or stretch myself taut or raise my hands to the sky, and want more than all the world — your return.”

Being A Friend.”

Memories are made of things
That happen every day
Moments as we live them
Things we do and say . . .

. . . Little bits and pieces
Of laughter mixed with tears

Paragraphs and pages
Written through the years

. . . The carefree days of childhood,
The growing pains of youth,
A few illusions shattered
In the endless search for truth . . .

. . . The frierdships
we remember,
Mistakes that we regret,
The ending of a love affair
We never could forget

. . . Yes, memories are happenings,
Each one a different kind,
Each a separate chapter
That is printed on the mind . . .

. . . We can't erase the sadness
Or emit out the tears,
We can't undo the wrongs we've done,
We can't relive the years . . .

to store within the heart.

A large heart-shaped frame containing a black and white photograph of a crowded indoor event, possibly a dance or social gathering, with many people in formal attire. The image is grainy and has a vintage feel. The heart shape is defined by a thick black outline. The photograph inside shows a large room with people standing and sitting. In the foreground, there are several people, some looking towards the camera. In the background, there are more people and what appears to be a stage or a large open area. The overall atmosphere is one of a formal or semi-formal social event.

 6 eggs for breaking,
 5 cups of flour,
 4 cookie recipes,

 2 wooden spoons,
 and
 1 flowered apron each.
 Mrs. Smith did her usual fantastic job in planning and aiding the senior girls with the senior tea. The faculty guests were very pleased.

“A Bad Year For Tomatoes”

The class of '78 found that it was “A Bad Year for Tomatoes” but a good year for a stage production

Myra Marlow (Laurie Smith) moved to a small town called Beaver Haven as she was trying to escape from the mixed up world of Hollywood. Her boyfriend, Tom (Ray Bennett), reluctantly helps settle her in to her supposedly quiet new home to grow tomatoes and write her life story. Her neighbors, Cora Gump (Elaine Krouse) and Reba Harper (Robin Black), paid her a visit and initiated her into the strange new surroundings. Willa Mae (Sharon Brown) revealed her true self to Myra by telling her fortune. Piney became a first class pest as he tried to become her friend. Her peaceful dream world was shattered by her nosy neighbors. To regain her peace-of-mind she created a crazy sister, Sadie, to act as a watch dog. Piney fell in love with Sadie, which created a mess for Myra because there really was no Sadie. The town's people got suspicious and accused Myra of killing her crazy sister. The sheriff (Perry Rutkowski) got into the picture and was determined to arrest Myra. Tom saved the day by explaining the whole story to the people. Tom and Myra returned to the city and lived happily together.

Senior Boys Stitch and Stir Their Way Through Home Economics

SEWING: Martin Huffman, Perry Rutkowski, Scott Bowersox, Gary Smith, Larry Stanford, Rod Burford

Mrs. Pauline Smith opened the sewing room and kitchens to the senior boys this year. Those working toward improving their gourmet talents prepared such main dishes as barbecued chicken, oriental beef cubes, pizza by the yard, and flank steak. Desserts made included baked alaska, donuts, fudge, Christmas cookies, and brownies.

Learning to run the sewing machines was the main objective of the others. They also learned to sew on buttons, sew in facings, and trace patterns. With a watchful eye and patient guidance, the boys learned quickly.

The boys in this department had the chance to "model" in the fashion show if they wished.

Student Secretaries . . .

As part of the requirement for Office Practice class, each senior girl was asked to be Student Secretary. The Student Secretary for the day typed the absentee sheet, totaled the lunch count, typed tests, and ran off masters as she was assigned to do by faculty members. Each girl had 3 to 4 "Office Practice" days throughout the program. This program developed typing skills and taught the girls the responsibility of meeting deadlines. Quality work had to be the finished product. Mr. James C. Long designed the program and double-checked the absentee sheets before printing. He helped when there was a "major" crisis such as a torn master or a jammed ditto machine. His advice will always be remembered. Each girl has her own memories of the days she was Student Secretary in Room 129.

When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you're traveling seems uphill,
When the funds are low and the debts are high,
And you want to smile but you have to sigh,
When cares pressing you down a bit,
Rest if you must, but don't you quit!
Life is queer with its twists and turns-
As everyone of us sometimes learns-
And many a failure turns about

When he next to him won the stake that Doubt ever left though the pace seems slow
You may succeed with another blow
Success is failure turned inside out,
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt
And you never can tell how close you are
It may be near when it seems so far,
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hit
It's when things get worse that you must not quit!"

If you can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs and blaming it on you
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you, but make allowance for their doubting, too
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting or being lied about and not deal in lies
Or being hated, don't give way to hating and yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise
If you can dream and not make dreams your master, if you can think and not make thoughts your aim
Or you can meet with Triumph and Disaster and treat those two imposters just the same
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken and stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools
Or you can make the heap of broken images, because you know you've never broken
And lose, and start again at your beginning and never breathe a word about your loss
Or you can force your heart and nerve and sinew to serve your turn long after they are gone
And so hold on when there is nothing in you except the Will with which says to them "Hold on!"
If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue, or walk with Kings nor lose the common touch
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you; if all men count with you but none too much
If you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty seconds' worth of distance run Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it, and which is more — you'll be a Man, my son!

"WHAT A WONDERFUL WORLD"

Don't know much about history,
Don't know much biology
Don't know much about science books,
Don't know much about the French I took,
But I do know that I love you
And I know that if you'd love me too-
What a wonderful world this would be

Don't know much about geography,
Don't know much trigonometry,
Don't know much about algebra,
Don't know what a slide rule is for
But I do know one and one is two-
And if this one could be with you-
What a wonderful world this would be

I don't claim to be an "A" student,
But I'm trying to be
'Cause maybe by being an "A" student,
I could win your love to me

Don't know much about the middle ages
Looked at the pictures and I turned the pages
Don't know nothing 'bout no rise and fall
Don't know nothing 'bout nothing at all 'Cause it's you that I've been thinking of
And if I could only win your love-
What a wonderful, wonderful world this would be

Sr. High Student Council

Student Council is the only type of student government at Redbank. Its purpose is to provide students the right to state their opinions and ideas and to motivate student activities within the school.

Through the student council, gripes can be collected and brought before the administration. This year progress was made, but this is only the beginning. The 1977-78 Council hopes that future student councils continue the progress to improve Redbank.

"Sometimes When We Touch"

You ask me if I love you and I choke on my reply
I'd rather hurt you honestly than mis-lead you with a lie
Who am I to judge you on what you say or do?
I'm only just beginning to see the real you

*Sometimes when we touch the honesty's too much
And I have to close my eyes and hide
I want to hold you till I die-
Till we both break down and cry-
I want to hold you till the fear in me subsides

Romance and all its strategy leaves me battling with my pride,
But through the insecurity some tenderness survives.
I'm just another writer still trapped within my truth-
A hesitant prize fighter still trapped within my youth

• (Chorus)

At times I'd like to break you and drive you to your knees
At times I'd like to break through and hold you endlessly.
At times I understand you and I know how hard you try,
I've watched while love commands you and I've watched love pass you by
At times I think we're drifters still searching for a friend-
A brother or a sister, but then the passion flares again

• (Chorus)

— Dan Hill

Seventh And Eighth Grade Dance

The tropical setting from Fantasy Is and remained to provide a beautiful Seventh and Eighth Grade Dance this year. Maquade presented live music from 8:00 - 11:00. Refreshments were served in the lobby. The night was a fine example of the "class" in the Classes of '82 and '83.

Jr. High Student Council

Jr. High Student Council served it's fourth year of existence well. Their main objective was to raise the school spirit in the junior high students. One way this was accomplished was by holding a homeroom contest to see which homeroom could have the greatest percentage of attendance at a junior high athletic event. They also sold towels and gym bags to raise money. Mrs. Kittle did a fine job as sponsor
